ABOUT

Scott Averkamp is a trusted and experienced real estate and estate planning attorney who provides peace of mind to his clients. In his real estate practice, Scott advises clients on issues relating to document drafting for purchases, sales, leases, condominiums, and planned unit developments. In his estate planning practice, he handles wills, trusts, tax, probate, charitable giving, asset protection, and elder law.

When looking for the right lawyer to help you feel support and guidance through the complex legal maze, Scott's dedication and passion for doing things well are what you need. His comprehensive legal services extend to corporations, limited liability companies, partnerships, and other business entities for his business clients.
