ABOUT

Shyla advises clients on a variety of legal strategies, including venture and structure financings, corporate formations and reorganizations, business plans optimization, and mergers and acquisitions.

Prior to joining Snow Christensen & Martineau, she also advised fund sponsors on structuring, formation, regulatory compliance, and operation of private equity funds and their management companies, represented investors engaged in primary and secondary transactions (including traditional purchases and sales of private fund interests), and negotiated with counterparties on purchase and sale agreements, tri-party transfer agreements, and other agreements.

Prior to joining Snow Christensen & Martineau, Shyla practiced at Kirkland & Ellis with the Investment Funds Practice Group.
