ABOUT

Richard's practice focuses on corporate and IP transactions and civil litigation in the areas of business litigation, professional liability, intellectual property, insurance defense, and appeals in both state and federal courts. He has broad legal experience beyond civil litigation in areas such as corporate and securities law, sports law, intellectual property, and criminal law, and was honored to intern with the Honorable David R. Hamilton where he gained a valuable behind-the-bench perspective that benefits those he represents in and out of court.
